London Children's Palliative Care Network

Working together for better children's palliative care across London

The London Children & Young People's Palliative Care Network is a regional multi-agency group established to work together to ensure that palliative care for children and young people and their families is delivered in a seamless and integrated way across London.

The Network is open to anyone in London who is working with children and young people with palliative care needs such as Children Community Nurses, Commissioners of Children's Services, Social Workers, Education workers, Paediatric Consultants with special interest in palliative care, those working with children and young people with complex needs or disabilities. There are also local groups which meet in NW, NE, SE, SW and Central London.

The groups meets quarterly, if you are interested in joining, please complete the form below and return it to Katrina McNamara-Goodger, ACT: The Association for Children's Palliative Care, Orchard House, Orchard Lane, Bristol, or email Katrina katrina@act.org.uk and we will send you further details.

Alternatively, you could contact your local link person:
